ASSUMPTION OF RISKS

Programs and activities at High Plains Retreat Center involves a variety of activities including games, group initiatives (physical and cognitive), ropes courses, 2-person giant swing, zip line, archery, riflery, swimming pool and other potentially rigorous physical/emotional activities. The inherent risks and other risks of this program may include falls, heat stroke, hypothermia, anxiety and other fear responses, elevated heart rates, collisions with objects or other people, unsafe acts by other participants, exposure to illnesses, acts of nature related to being in the outdoor venues, and other risks that may or may not be noted by participants and staff. Safety is an important priority in the facilitation and management of all levels of programming, however, even with the adherence to recognized risk management practices in adventure programming, accidents do occur. Participation in all of these activities and elements may result in injury, fatigue, psychological stress, or even death, not totally unlike other physically and emotionally demanding activities of various natures. The level of participation in our program is entirely voluntary and under individual choice at all times and for ALL aspects of the program or training. As with any program of this nature, there is a risk that must be assumed by each participant in the event that he/she may experience any emotional or physical injury or death. I recognize that there is a significant element of risk in any adventure sport or activity associated with the outdoors. Knowing the risks, dangers, and rigors involved in the activities, I represent that I/my child exhibit(s) good health required for participating in the activities.

COVID-19 WARNING – An inherent risk of exposure to COVID-19 exists in any public place where people are present. Covid-19 is an extremely contagious disease that can lead to severe illness, hospitalization, or death. We have enhanced health and safety measures throughout camp and are implementing new procedures and protocols. You must follow all protocols and posted instructions while at our property. Senior citizens and guests with underlying medical conditions are especially vulnerable. While at HPRC and taking part in our programs, you voluntarily assume all risks related to exposure to COVID-19.
